LOCATION

Lakhpur Court is situated on the Staffordshire Technology Park at Beaconside, approximately one mile north-east from the town centre and with a link to the M6 Motorway at Junction 14 about three miles distant via the A513 Beaconside eastern distributor road. Stafford also benefits from its rail connection providing inter-city services throughout the national network. The Staffordshire Technology Park is the town's principal office development and is home to major occupiers including Defra, Nestor Healthcare, the Staffordshire Police Authority, NFU Mutual Assurance and Amey.

DESCRIPTION

Lakhpur Court is an office development of two-storey brick and tile construction consisting of three imposing buildings arranged to front an extensive forecourt car parking area. Darwin House is detached and provides accommodation accessed through an entrance lobby leading to four suites on the ground and first floors with a passenger lift linking each level. The office areas are open-plan in format and each suite enjoys the benefit of its own kitchen and male, female and disabled W.C. facilities.

Fitted features include raised access floors, dado trunking, suspended ceilings with recessed Category II lighting, comfort cooling and heating, carpeting, coded entry systems to the main doors and intruder alarm protection of the common areas. The building is available either as a whole providing a total net floor area of 5,800 sq.ft. (538.82 sq.m.) or in suites from 1,450 sq.ft. (134.71 sq.m.) capable of combination to provide larger areas of 2,900 sq.ft. (269.42 sq.m.) and 4,350 sq.ft. (404.13 sq.m.).
