LOCATION

Priestly Court is situated on the Staffordshire Technology Park at Beaconside approximately one mile north-east from the town centre and linked to Junction 14 of the M6 Motorway about three miles distant via the A513 Eastern Distributor Road. Stafford also benefits from its rail connections to intercity services throughout the national network.

The Staffordshire Technology Park is the town's principal office development and is home to many major occupiers including the Staffordshire Football Association, Amey, Defra, Allied Healthcare, British Red Cross, Handelsbanken and NFU Mutual Assurance.

DESCRIPTION

Priestly Court is a group of nine prestige office buildings arranged around extensive car parking and landscaped areas.

Opus House is located at the southern end of the development and is of two-storey detached brick construction with a roof in tile and prominently fronts Dyson Way, the main one-way estate road.

Access is by way of a shared entrance lobby leading to ground and first floor suites with fitted features including suspended ceilings with recessed LED lighting, full access raised floors, carpeting and blinds.

The upper floor is occupied by the owner with the ground floor accommodation due to become available later in the year and offering a prospective tenant an ideal opportunity to acquire high quality space in an attractive office park setting with excellent communications links.

SERVICES

All mains services are connected. The premises are heated by hot water radiators fed by a gas-fired boiler.

ASSESSMENTS

The local authority for rating purposes is Stafford Borough Council. The rateable value of the premises is £23,000 with rates payable of £11,477 for the year commencing in April 2023. This is the combined figure arrived at by adding together the currently separate assessments for the suite that had previously been divided to provide two separate units. These details have been based on the information provided by the Valuation Office's website and should be double-checked by any party intending to enter into any commitment that relies on their accuracy.

EPC

The Energy Performance Certificate issued for this property indicates a Rating of 47 within Band B. A full certificate with recommendations will be provided on request.

TERMS

The premises are available on a new full repairing and insuring lease for a term to be agreed at a rental of £25,000 per annum exclusive of rates with upward only reviews at agreed intervals. A service charge will be levied by the landlord to cover the apportioned cost of buildings insurance, heating and other communal costs. VAT is applicable on the rental and service charge figures.

LEGAL COSTS

Both parties are to be responsible for their own legal costs incurred in the preparation of the lease and the counterpart lease, together with any Stamp Duty and VAT due thereon.

VIEWING

By arrangement with the Agents' Stafford Offices.

The premises are offered subject to contract and to being unlet.

VACANT POSSESSION WILL BE GIVEN ON COMPLETION
